A number of unpaid laborers yesterday made threats against Assistant Controller Green and Paymaster Cady on account of non-payment of wages. The laborers allege that their families are suffering for food and fuel. The cause of trouble is that the pay rolls are withheld at Washington Department.

It is reported that the treasurer of DeWitt county, Illinois, is a defaulter to the amount of $12,000 or $15,000. He has gone to California.

The body of an unknown man found in East River on Monday, has been identified as that of B. B. Turkington, a seaman, late of the steamer Portsmouth, of Brooklyn Navy Yard. He was formerly a prominent citizen of San Francisco.

A Matamoras special says merchants and foreigners there refuse to respond to the call for a loan of $40,000. Gen. Cortinas is believed to be secretly acting with the revolutionists. There are no funds in the Government treasury at Matamoras. It is believed that the roads toward Mexico will soon be closed by the revolutionists from Monterey to Saltillo. It is believed they are marching.

Quarrelsome Royalty.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—A special from St. Petersburg states that the Czarowitz Alexandria in a quarrel assaulted Prince De Ruse, the German Minister. Friends interfered and the parties were separated. The incident caused much excitement, although there is no reason to apprehend any interruption of the good relations between Germany and Russia, as the quarrel is believed to be wholly personal.

A dispatch by telegraph line via southern India and the Red Sea cable, announces the successful observation of the total eclipse of the sun in the southern hemisphere.

A Herald London special of the 12th says the recovery of the Prince appears impossible. In case of his death a Council of Regency will probably be created composed of the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke of Edinburgh, the Princess of Wales and perhaps others. Queen is likely to take place immediately and be followed by Disraeli upon the power of the present Parliament to continue its sessions, or whether it is necessary to appeal to the country as an extraordinary occasion.

The latest bulletin this afternoon states that the Prince has been very unquiet all the afternoon, and the gravity of the symptoms is accentuated.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 13.—John E. Dunn, who, on being remanded to jail after the habeas corpus case to-day, attempted to escape from the officer and was shot in the arm, it is thought will not lose his arm as was at first anticipated.

The great trot for ten thousand dollars between Lady St. Clair and Tanmesk, five miles, out at the Bay District Agricultural Park to-day, was won by St. Clair. Time—1:55. The second race, a pacing race, between Gipsey and Lady Pruett, mile heats, two in three, was won in two straight heats by Pruett. Time—2:42 and 2:43.

A policeman late last night found a young woman, who had been betrayed and deserted, sitting in an unfinished house on Fourth street, with her infant which had starved to death in her arms. She has been cared for.

The Pacific Insurance Company paid four hundred and sixty-three thousand dollars to the Liverpool, London and Globe Insurance Company to reinsure all its outstanding risks, and it was unnecessary to have had policies changed as all the arrangements are complete.

Weather clear and warm; no wind.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 13.—Arriving overland this evening, Col. J. S. Waters, wife and nurse, Portland; F. Smith, Leesburg.

The steamer Constitution from Panama, the Oriflamme from Portland, and the Prince Alfred from Victoria, all due here, have not yet been signaled from the heads.

Owing to the illness of the Prince of Wales, the band of the Zealous has not played at all since the arrival of the steamer here, except to give "God Save the Queen" at the hoisting of the flag this morning. No reception or other festivities have taken place on board. The officers are very indignant at the bogus news, purporting to have been dispatched from London, announcing the death of the Prince of Wales—palmed off on them this morning by the Chronicle.

The only vessels which entered port to-day were two small coasters.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 13.—Yesterday morning in a drunken quarrel Jose Morales, aged sixty-five years, a native of Arizona, was beaten to death by Jesus Alleo. The jury returned a verdict of death from the result of a quarrel provoked by deceased.

SALT LAKE, Dec. 13.—Excitement to-day was occasioned by arrests for the murder of Dr. Robinson. The accused were remanded to jail for a hearing before Judge McKean to-morrow. The prisoners are all Mormons. The officers assert positive evidence of their guilt. SAN DIEGO, Dec. 13.—The Tucson Citizen has the following: Cavalry are leaving as fast as transportation can be made, and will be on the way to Yuma by the 5th. News just in from Sonora, Nov. 23d, says: Government troops attacked the insurgents at Fort Recitonzo and after half an hour of hard fighting captured twelve officers, three hundred men and all camp equipments. The trial of 108 men, indicted in October for killing Apaches, is progressing. All are present save one, and all are being tried at once.

A man named Robert Henobin is supposed to have been drowned near Port Orford a few days ago. He was from Marion county, and formerly resided in the Waldo Hills.

George Tribble, who was cowhided by two young women at Jacksonville a few days ago set off for Yreka, but was brought back and a charge of perjury entered against him.

The Jacksonville Times regales the public taste with two columns on the seduction case, in which the name of Jas. D. Fay and Hannah Balls figure as principals. The object is to vindicate Fay.

A few days ago at Jacksonville James Good, Julius Warner and Charles Merrill, were each sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary at hard labor, for a term of four years and six months by Judge Prim for horse-stealing.

The Roseburg Plaindealer has a long article from a ship master of twenty years' experience in favor of the construction of a breakwater at Port Orford. The reasons given are very strong, and Oregon and California are urged to press the matter upon the attention of Congress.

The Salem Statesman tells us that "Miller is de facto Governor. He boasts it himself, it seems, to a good witness informs us, and we judge that if the people want him for any position in future, they will elect him direct and not set up Grover as a dummy for him to practice on any longer."

Under the head of "another larceny" the Jacksonville Times has this: A man named Conner was arrested at Grant's Pass on Wednesday, charged with having wilfully, maliciously and feloniously, without the fear of God before his eyes, but being seduced by the instigation of the devil, taken and carried away one wife, and one baby twenty months old, and one span of horses, the property of Wm. Savage of Yamhill county. Conner may be said to have "taken his start in Yamhill," at any rate.

Abuses of Petty Litigation.

In an article yesterday we alluded to abuses sometimes practiced in Justice's Courts, whereby the tax-payers are forced to meet exorbitant bills of costs and expenses incurred in trivial actions. To support the ministers of this petty litigation is a heavy tax on the public. Small lawyers and Courts of inferior jurisdiction too often foment and conduct this litigious wrangling for their own profit, and the cost is taxed upon the public treasury. The act to regulate proceedings in Justices' Courts leaves it optional with the Justice to require a plaintiff to give bonds for the costs and disbursements of the action he brings. A multitude of trivial complaints are hatched up yearly by irresponsible parties and actions are brought upon them. Now the Justice has it in his discretion to require a bond from the plaintiff or not. If, however, such bond is required, it will put a stop in many cases to the action, since the plaintiff either cannot give the bond, or will decline to give it when there is a probability that he and his sureties will be forced to pay the costs. Hence the case cannot go on, and the Justice will lose his fees. Rather than let the opportunity pass, he will decline to require the bond, at any rate he has this direct interest in not requiring it. The consequence is that in many cases the county is in for the costs. And perhaps the case, which may be too trivial ever to have come into Court, is sent up to a higher tribunal, and the county is taxed heavily for the expense of litigation there.

The object of the laws should be to discourage these trivial suits, not to offer premiums to small attorneys and to petty Courts to multiply them. Hence section 10, chapter 3, of the act to regulate proceedings in Justices' Courts should be so amended as to require the Justice in a large class of cases to compel a plaintiff to enter into an undertaking with sureties for the costs and disbursements of the action that he brings. This would put a stop to many of the practices of petty and vexatious litigation, and would save to the tax-payers much money. Those who live by this traffic could not then so successfully encourage the commencement of trifling suits, and persons who advise every individual who has any spite or petty grievance against another to bring an action to harass him, because it won't cost anything, and the county will have to foot the bill, would find their occupation gone. Justices' Courts are, perhaps, necessary instruments in the administration of justice, but in the hands of unjust persons they may become an unmitigated nuisance.

Political Agitation in England.

Agitators in England are trying to get rid of the power and prerogatives of the House of Lords which they say stand in the way of progress and representative government. This agitation may enlist the sympathy of many people in our own country; yet it is not at all impossible to suggest a good many reasons why the decadence of the House of Lords should not necessarily be a good thing for England.

In estimating the value of the House of Lords in the English system, it must be remembered that it was avowedly the model from which we derived many of the attributes of our own National Senate. The authors of our Constitution rejected the title and the class distinctions, the life-term and the inheritance of seats in the Legislatures. But they retained the element of permanence, by making the Senatorial term triple that of the Representative; they adopted the idea of gradual change, by releasing one-third of the Senate each year; they gave the Representatives the power of originating money bills, and to the Senate they gave the power of action on all measures, and in this they only borrowed earlier conditions from the history of the English Lords; and, finally, by providing for the election of the Senate by the Legislatures, they did all in their power to remove it as far from the influence of popular passions as is the House of Lords itself.

History certainly shows a record for the House of Lords, which was thus the exemplar of our Senate, which is not likely to be brushed aside. Since the Government of England has been really based on representative principles the House of Lords has exercised all the duties of a reviewing body with discretion and firmness and without serious abuse.

Mr. Gladstone has been foremost among those who have been gradually destroying the functions of the House of Lords, and now he need not be surprised to find that he has taught others to demand the total annihilation of that body. This would leave the House of Commons sole ruler. "A single legislative body," says M. Laboulaye, in a recent admirable letter on a constitutional republic for France, "is in effect a permanent dictatorship; a legislative power in no wise moderated is despotism. It does not afford adequate guarantees for liberty." When the power of the House of Lords is finally destroyed, the British Government will be substantially a Government by a "single legislative body." It is questionable whether that is a goal toward which it is worth while to drift in the unguided manner in which England is now drifting. The death of the Prince of Wales, if that event shall occur, may do much to hasten on this agitation and to press it to consequences.

The Sacramento Union is not lavish of its praises of anybody, and is accustomed to criticise all men and all parties very closely: This is its opinion of the Presidents message: "The message takes such advanced ground in regard to all measures of reform, that the opposition appears to have but little to harp on but personal dislike of Grant. * * * If anything had been wanting to make the President's re-nomination and re-election sure, this message strikes us as having supplied that want and dwarfed all competing candidates into mere shadows of opposition."

The Sacramento Union has this considerate paragraph: "It is now evident that the restoration of civil government to the people in the South was accomplished too early. Far better would it have been for the people of the Southern States to have lived under military authority till the disturbing elements had time to settle into order. Distasteful as a military government is, it could not have been worse than the so-called carpet-bag rule that has afflicted the South since the military authority there was superseded by governments nominally of the people."

There was delay in organizing the California Legislature, which has put off the balloting for Senator the 19th inst., when it will commence as required by the law of Congress. Prodigious efforts are being made by the respective friends of Cole, Sargent and Felton.

More Blair.

The Blairs are always managing to make a noise. This family of political harlequins keep up a lively performance here and there. Montgomery, brother of Frank P., and ex-Postmaster General, has recently been playing at Washington. He thinks Gen. Grant can be defeated only by making some sacrifices, and the sacrifice he proposes to offer up is no less than the Democratic party. He says:

> The Democratic party is taunted with sectionalism, and this fact alone should keep it as an organization out of the next Presidential canvass. The war spirit is not dead yet, and this name alone is yet hated enough to manufacture hundreds of thousands of radical votes at a day's notice. This sectional clamor is a thing that must be killed now. It will always be forced into existence in the presence of what has popularly come to be known as the Southern party. Let the Democratic party, as an organization, stand back and let the field be kept clear to the disaffected and independent Republicans. The Missouri programme suits me. There the Radicals were defeated through this kind of co-operation. Let the Radicals call their Convention and nominate Grant, and then let the Independent Republicans bolt and nominate whoever they please, and then the Democrats rally to his support. This is the way Lincoln got in in 1860, and this is the way Grant can easily be defeated.

Proposed Annexation.

It seems that there is a growing probability that more Mexican territory will soon be offered us. We quote this from the San Francisco Chronicle:

> Advices from Mazatlan and Guaymas state that since the commencement of the existing revolution against Juarez there has been a good deal said about the annexation of Northwestern Mexico to the United States. The Mexican States principally mentioned are Sinaloa, Sonora and Chihuahua; having in the aggregate an area of 259,437 square miles and a population of over 500,000 souls. The territory thus proposed to be annexed would give us a strip of country nearly twice the size of California. This talk of annexing the States mentioned is no new thing. It has been agitated by the Americans resident along the California Gulf coast for the past twenty years. Their dreams are not realized yet; but manifest destiny, as the historians have it, will in time waved the stars and stripes over Northwestern Mexico. The Mexicans, however, are not at present at all anxious to have any portion of their country annexed, and will neither sell nor cede the States bordering the Republic of the North. A little unpleasantness will occur some day in the future which will settle this annexation question for all time.

The Tea Trade.

A San Francisco paper has this:

> During the past year 15,000,000 pounds of tea were sent East by rail from San Francisco. In the previous year 1,700,000 pounds was the amount sent hence. The proportion of the entire tea imports of the United States received at San Francisco has now risen to thirty per cent., and the steamers are packed full in advance. This is sufficient to show that this the route, and that all the tea will, sooner or later, come this why. The English importation of tea for the first nine months of the present year was over 121,100,000 pounds, and the same favorable conditions which make the overland route preferable for United States importations will extend to the English trade.

The report of the Secretary of War shows that of the Southern railroads which, under an order issued at the close of the war by President Johnson (which order, by the way, was totally without authority of law), were allowed to purchase rolling stock and other railroad supplies and material from the United States, twenty-seven have paid their debts in full, with interest, amounting to $2,465,567. Twenty-four are still in debt to the United States $4,724,350.

J. M. Leach, a Democratic Congressman from North Carolina, is rather unpleasantly situated. It has been proved at the Ku Klux trials in North Carolina that he is a prominent member and organizer of that body of conspirators, and he is likely to be expelled from Congress and be punished besides.

That eminent horse publication, Wilkes' Spirit of the Times, has pronounced against the re-election of Grant. We have read, we think, it was in the Oregon Herald, that Grant was the associate of horse jockeys like Wilkes and their candidate for re-election.

On the 6th inst. a part of the suite of Duke Alexis was at Omaha on the way to San Francisco to make arrangements for the visit of the Duke to that city.

The official figures make the Republican majority in Illinois in the November election larger than has heretofore been reported. The majority is 22,489.

POLITICAL NOTES.

There is not a single Republican paper in the State of Illinois, so far as they have spoken of the matter, but is in favor of the renomination of Gen. Grant. It is intimated that even the Chicago Tribune, which heretofore was against Gen. Grant, will offer no further opposition.

The "new party" that is organizing to beat the Republicans throughout the United States, will hold a convention before long. Like that which His Excellency the Hon. John Tyler organized, it will move in a sulky after the first day's session. But it will "resolute" amazingly, for all that.

C. W. Woolsy, a Democratic member of Congress from Ohio has sent the following sarcastic telegram to the Democratic Committee of that State in reference to the Tom Scott departure: It is believed in well informed Democratic circles that the election of Thos. A Scott to the Presidency would enrich all the surviving members of the Miami tribe. Your committee should make proper provision to-day for a square divide with the survivors of the Maumees, Sciotos, Muskingums, and Cuyahogas.

The St. Louis Democrat has the following center shot at Schurz: "Mr. Stephen Pearl Andrews is a convert to the 'Possum Policy and Civil Service Reform. He has not said so in so many words, but the inference is deducible from his latest article in Woodhull & Claflin's Weekly, in which he assures us that 'the absolutoid and abstractoid elementisms of being echoes or responsears by analogy within, the relatoid and concretoid elaborismus.'" The Hon. Carl Schurz in his latest speech takes precisely the same grounds; and the coincidence strikes us as quite ominous.

Chicago's humor has not been burnt out. The Post thus expresses the situation:

> A tinker and a tailor,
> A soldier and a sailor,
> A newspaper reporter who couldn't get his pay;
> Bank messengers and tellers,
> And a host of other fellers,
> Are now carpenters and masons at $3 a day.

An effort is to be made to secure the repeal of the United States tax on deposits in savings banks. It is understood that the savings banks in all the New England States, together with those of New York, will co-operate in this endeavor. The 149 savings banks of Massachusetts pay a tax to the State and United States of upward of $112,000.

Poor Connolly, one of the Tammany "sufferers," is still trotting around New York trying to find bail. He will probably follow the example of others of the ring thieves shortly, and take leg bail.

The Illinois Senate refused to print Governor Palmer's Message censuring Gen. Sheridan.

Failure of many of the most eminent physicians of San Francisco to cure a case of Rheumatism.—Triumph of the Unk Weed Remedy.

SAN JOSE, August 25, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORETA & Co.: This is to certify that I, the undersigned, have been sick for five years with Rheumatism, and have been treated for many ailments. My trouble has been weakness of the back and side, and wandering pains all over my body. I have been treated by many of the most eminent physicians of San Francisco, as well as of this city; but without any effect. At last I was induced to try your UNK WEED REMEDY, and the result was that after taking the contents of two bottles I found myself perfectly cured. To all afflicted with Rheumatism, I say TRY THE UNK WEED REMEDY, and you will be cured. Yours truly,

JAMES AHERN, San Jose.

MEETING OF MODEST MERIT.—At the Lutheran Fair the fair ones have a jack knife which they propose to donate to the man who shall receive the highest number of votes as the "homeliest man" in the city. There is no lack of candidates, and among them there are certainly many who deserve at least a "complimentary vote." Regarding this fact, we admit that the man who is to get the knife should be pre-eminently a "homely man." We have such a man in our mind's eye; we never looked him square in the face, except through the intervention of a mirror, but we know that, judged by the rule adopted in this jack knife business, he has claims for consideration which cannot be ignored. He is a modest, almost bashful man who never would have thought of becoming a candidate on his own motion, for anything. He awoke yesterday morning, however, from a troubled sleep—he is so homely that he never could sleep peacefully—to find that his modest merit had been recognized, and that he had become a candidate for that jack knife. But why speak further of him as "he" and "him" since everybody must know whom we mean? Since we are a candidate, we will assume as bold a face as our homeliness will admit of, and, without prejudice, partiality or malice, go for that knife. A writer of divine truth—truth is always divine—has said that "man is fearfully and wonderfully made." We did not enjoy that man's acquaintance, nor did he have the honor to know us—he lived and died too soon—but if he had, he certainly would have had another and more highly sensational subject upon which to employ his pen than the internal mysteries of the common man's organization. And we flatter ourself that our personal appearance would have furnished that subject. No dissertation in common English would do the subject justice, and we shall not attempt it. We are content to let our candidacy for that knife rest upon the modest but very apparent merits of the candidate. How does the vote stand now?

A NIPPER OF BOOTS.—Yesterday afternoon a laughable scene occurred near the corner of Front and Madison streets. A hardy and needy-looking customer promenading along Front street, was attracted by the appearance of a pair of boots in a store. He looked at them and evidently considered they would be a handy article to have, and as they were handy to take hold of he took hold of them. Suddenly recollecting that he had an appointment with a friend round the corner, he suddenly started round the corner to see his friend, forgetting to put the boots down in their proper place. Just as he was in the act of doing a trotting feat, putting his best foot forward, a woman with a capacious stomach and splendid lungs, the keeper ad interim of the store, rushed out and yelled a yell which could have been heard half way to the State line. The nipper ran up Main street as if pursued by a healthy Russian bear; turned down First and then up Salmon, while a number of bystanders, half suffocated with laughter, ran after him as speedily as their state would allow. While going down First, the nipper threw the boots away, evidently disgusted at people who would raise such a hullabalioo about one pair of boots. Reaching Salmon street, he scaled a fence and dodged around behind or into some of the buildings, and was seen no more by the pursuers.

MAN KILLED BY A FREIGHT TRAIN.—An Irishman named Flannigan, who some time ago was employed as a laborer on the Oregon and California Railroad, was found yesterday morning lying dead beside the track about a quarter of a mile this side of Canby. He had been discharged some time since for drunkenness. Monday evening he was seen at the Canby freight station in a condition of deep intoxication about half an hour before the freight train passed along, but it was not known which way he went. Yesterday morning he was found as above stated, with his head badly bruised and his right arm crushed. It is supposed that he had laid down in a drunken stupor upon the track and had been hit and killed by the cow-catcher, as there was no sign on the track of his having been run over.

THE LUTHERAN FAIR.—The fair at Armory Hall in aid of the Lutheran Church has got fairly under way, and is likely to proceed quite satisfactorily. There are several tables nicely fitted up and stocked with articles for sale; there is a post-office, a lunch room, voting places (for disposal of chair, cane and jack-knife), and numerous other devices upon which the liberal may expend their spare cash. The attendance last evening, though not large at any time, was in the aggregate very fair, and the prospects for the rest of the week are encouraging. The ladies will furnish lunch to-day and every day through the week from 12 M. till 2 P. M.

SCOTCH SERVANT GIRLS.—The Bulletin has been shown a letter, written by James McG. Melville, emigration and commission agent at Dundee, Scotland, to a gentleman in this city, in which he proposes to pay the passage of a number of Scotch girls to Oregon, where they are to engage as house servants in such families as will refund him the passage money. He asks "how long will I have to wait before I get the money returned to me—or if I go out along with these helps, would I get the money named ($100) immediately after their being engaged?" Who knows? We give it up.

HOW TO LEND AID.—There are a number of young men of business qualifications, some of them strangers in town, who would like to obtain employment. A little help in this direction at the present time, would be regarded by them as a great favor. Anyone disposed to assist them will please inquire of the Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association; room No. 1, Ladd & Tilton's Bank Building.

ANOTHER SKATING RINK.—Arrangements are about concluded for the erection of a new building for the purpose of a skating rink, the site selected being located in the most central part of the city. Messrs. L. Besser and C. D. Folger are the parties interested, they having purchased the exclusive right of use in the county of the celebrated Boone's patent "C" spring skate.

CITY DIRECTORY.—The last forms of the City Directory, will go to press next week. Parties whose names have been omitted or firms who may have changed their locations since the lists were made, will, therefore, please notify Mr. A. Bushnell or leave information at the office of publication—105 Front street.

JUST AS WE STATED IT.—The Bulletin attempts to throw discredit upon our statement concerning a man being chased by garroters a few nights since on Pine street. The facts were, however, as we stated them. The gentleman, as attested by another person running in the same house, was followed to the very porch of the house, and the roughs even went up on the porch. Does the Bulletin wish to say that "B. O." or "officer K——," or any other officer chased the gentleman in the manner stated?

INSPECTION.—Gen. O. F. Bell and staff visited the Emmet Guard at their armory last evening for the purpose of review and inspection. The Emmets did not muster as many men as was expected, but the appearance of those who were present was very creditable, and their arms were in very fine condition. The General, in a brief speech to the troop, complimented them and pledged himself to whatever effort he was capable of to render the militia force efficient, and to perfect and enlarge the organization.

ENGAGEMENT CONCLUDED.—Miss Carrie Moore's engagement at the Pavilion closed last evening, after a very successful run of nearly two weeks. The audiences have been invariably large, and on several nights the Pavilion was crowded. Miss Moore commences an engagement at Salem this evening.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

THE CURE IS PERMANENT.—The case of W. L. Coleman, who was about blind from the effects of granulated lids, which Dr. Aborn cured some months since, hereby announces that he is permanently cured:

WESTPORT, Dec. 12, 1871.

DR. ABORN—Dear Sir: I take pleasure in stating that I am now as well as ever of sore eyes, and feel no symptoms of their return. I have been at work for Capt. John West & Co., at Westport, for over two months.

Yours truly,
W. L. COLEMAN.

CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR.—Our readers before making purchases for the Holidays should not fail to call at Bancroft & Morse's, on First street, next door to the postoffice. Mr. Morse while in San Francisco selected a large stock of fancy goods, books, gold pens and holders, etc., which they are offering at such rates that all will be satisfied with them. Even if not desiring to make purchases a look through their store at the beautiful articles exposed for sale will repay all.

JEWELRY, ETC.—Those purchasing for holidays would find it to their advantage to call on Henrichsen, 109 First street and examine his extensive stock of watches, silverware, etc. He has recently imported many new articles in his line. You can lose nothing and gain a great deal by calling on him.

RE-OPENED.—Mr. M. Zeller, who has been a resident of this city for many years has lately returned from a tour to the States, and will, next Saturday evening, re-open his place of business, at the southeast corner of Front and Main streets. See advertisement.

WHAT TO BUY FOR A CHRISTMAS PRESENT.—Mr. G. W. Traver suggests, very sensibly, that a Home Shuttle Sewing Machine would be a very sensible thing to buy for a Christmas present. The lady who should get one would be apt to so regard it, too.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.—Messrs. Gill & Steel have on hand thirty-nine first-class pianos and organs, and they are offering on the most favorable terms. It is worth while to give them an examination.

DANCING.—Mr. C. Cardinell has made his arrangement to hold a dancing soiree, at his academy, each Saturday evening. For particulars as to meetings of classes we refer to Mr. C.'s advertisement.

S. L. Stone is giving more toys and fancy goods for six bits than any house in town does for one dollar.

ANOTHER WELL ATTESTED CURE OF NASAL CATARRH.

PORTLAND, Oregon, Dec. 13, 1871.

This is to certify that my little daughter, now eight years of age, has been afflicted with nasal catarrh since she was two years of age, caused by scarlet fever.

I placed her under the care of Dr. Aborn, and after two months' treatment she was entirely cured, and it is now two months since the treatment was discontinued. Her general health has been greatly improved, and she has gained several pounds in weight.

J. C. KINGSLEY.

SUCCESSFUL PRACTICE.

It will be seen by reference to these columns from time to time that Dr. Aborn is still having great success in his practice. The Doctor has been among us about four months, and many who were cured by him when he first arrived are now convinced that the cures are permanent.

THE GRAND DUKE ALEXIS has signified his intention of coming as far west as San Francisco. He will not be able to visit Portland, but he has given orders to J. O'Neil & Co. for a suit of clothes, as he is well aware that at that establishment can be had the best fitting, most stylish, and to cap the climax the cheapest suits to be obtained in this city. Not only have they excellent clothing but they have a full stock of Star Shirts, new ties, underskirts, drawers and the famous Quaker Umbrella. It is unnecessary to say more. Go to O'Neil & Co's, 95 First street, and rest assured you will be pleased with what you see.

In the New York Herald we observe an advertisement to the effect that a whole Funeral can be had for $25. Well, that is decidedly cheap; but think of selling suits of Clothing at $18. It is done every day at Hohn & Fishel's, 91 Front street, where they not only sell suits cheap, but it is so in everything they offer to the public.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS.—By the next steamer will be received at Kent & Richards, Front street, between Alder and Morrison, a large and elegant stock of goods for the holidays. They have a full assortment of winter goods in store and will be happy to see everybody.

STYLES JUST RECEIVED.—Gilt Parlor Furniture, Easy Chairs in great variety, Bouquet Stands, Card Receivers, Wall Pockets, Finished in Gilt, Walnut, Ebony, Wax and Marqueiry. Call and see the Woven Wire Mattress at BURGREN & SHINDLER'S.

WORK of every description in the house building line will be done at short notice to the best of satisfaction. PAUL RICHTER.

AS S. L. Stone is closing out at cost his fancy goods, toys and willow ware, this is the last chance to buy cheap.

LAY, mister, where is the Postoffice? Why, it is next door to S. L. Stone's cigar and tobacco store.

Everybody says S. L. Stone is selling the best bit and two bit cigars in the city.

Kris Kringle's headquarters is at S. L. Stone's, next door to the Postoffice.

Shocks to the System.

The first shock of winter tells tremendously upon enfeebled systems. Every one knows that in passing from a warm region to a cold one, or vice versa, the body requires as a protection against epidemics, an acclimating medicine. All travelers and voyagers admit this. It is equally necessary to acclimate the system in passing the confines of one season and entering upon another. Autumn is gone and Winter is here. Prepare the frame and the constitution to meet the change by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This inestimable vegetable tonic increases the stamina of strength of those who take it, and renders them proof to a great extent against the devitalizing power of cold and damp. Those two agents are as prolific of disease as tropical heat, and animal vigor—such vigor as this healthful and pure tonic diffuses through the whole organization—is a repellant which they cannot master. A large proportion of the colds, catarrhs, and pulmonary complaints which prevail in Winter, might be avoided, by strengthening and regulating the system in advance with this invigorant and alterative. Not that it is recommended as a specific for those complaints, but as a preventive of their causes. On the other hand, it is not only a preventive of, but a specific for the indigestion, intestinal irregularities, malarious fevers, bilious attacks and nervous affection, superinduced by a chilly and damp atmosphere.

NEW YORK
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY!
PURELY MUTUAL!

ASSETS ..... $17 000,000!

ISSUED 9,025 POLICIES IN 1870.

Insuring Over $27,000,000!

WM. H. BEERS, Vice President and Actuary. MORRIS FRANKEL, President.

AMONG THE ADVANTAGES OFFERED BY THE NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY are:—

1st. PURE MUTUALITY, so that the entire surplus earnings over the actual cost of insurance is returned to the policy holders who are the only members.

2d. AGE, having been organized in 1845. It has the benefit of the experience of a quarter of a century, and members are thus guaranteed from all doubtful experiment in the method of conducting its business.

3d. STABILITY AND PERPETUITY shown by the accumulation of a capital of Seventeen Millions of Dollars, after paying all losses promptly, and returning large dividends to its members. It has now an income of over Seven Millions of Dollars, and the interest on its investments, with premiums on gold, &c., has been sufficient during the past two years to pay accruing losses.

4th. NON-FORFEITURE OF POLICIES. It originated the system of non-forfeiture of policies, and to it the public are indebted for a feature so favorable to the insured.

5th. SUICIDE does not cause a forfeiture of the policy, that being considered an evidence of insanity, and insanity the result of disease.

6th. DIVIDENDS. Its dividends are declared annually, and are available immediately as cash in payment of premiums. Many companies declare their premiums annually, but do not pay them till several years thereafter; others defer declarations for two, three or four years from the time the policy commences. In this Company a party always has a dividend which can be used in the payment of the second and all subsequent annual premiums.

7th. ITS DIVIDEND SYSTEM is the "Contribution Plan," by which each member is charged with the exact cost of his insurance, and receives back his surplus payments. These dividends can remain with the Company, participating in its earnings, and bonused at each subsequent period in the payment of premiums.

8th. LIBERALITY IN SETTLEMENT OF LOSSES. Experience has shown that cases arise where policies, although EQUITABLY claims, are not LEGALLY so. The records of this Company bear many acknowledgements from widows and relatives of deceased members of its liberality and fairness in settlement of all such losses. There being no stockholders in the Company to share its profits, interests adverse to policy-holders cannot possibly arise, the Trustees simply occupying the position of arbitrators between the members, with no inducement to take from one and give to another.
